ETTA BRUNNER

Handed out by: GEORGE DRUMMER DATE: 8/24/04
born 1930 in Vienna

1. BEFORE MARCH 1938

1.1 Please describe your parental home.

(Did you live in an apartment or in a house? How many people lived with you? Did you have servants? What language(s) were spoken in the household?)

We lived in an apartment. The residents were my parents, maternal grandparents, my older brother and I. There was a servant. The languages spoken were German, Yiddish and, by my parents and grandparents, Polish.

1.2 Please tell us about your neighborhood (District in Vienna or area).

(What ethnic groups lived there? Religious life? Relationships between Jews and non-Jews? Relationships with neighbors?)

We lived in the 2nd District ^{in Vienna}, which had a substantial Jewish population. Our street was mixed. Relationships with neighbors was good.

- 1.6 Did you or your family encounter any anti-Semitism before March 1938?
(If so, please give details.)

I didn't - I was too young - but my parents and grandparents undoubtedly did from time to time.

- 1.7 What was your (or your parents') reaction to Hitler's rise to power in Germany in 1933 and to Nazi activity in Austria in the early thirties?
Did you or your parents feel threatened by these events?

I was too young, but my parents thought that this, too, shall pass.

2. FROM MARCH 1938 TO EMIGRATION - FROM EUROPE TO AMERICA

2.1 How was your time spent during and after the "Anschluss"?

What was the impact of the "Anschluss" on you personally?

(Were you expelled from school/university? Did you or your parents lose your jobs? Were your apartments/houses looted? Were you (or members of your family) persecuted? Were you forced to scrub the streets?)

Activities were curtailed. I was taken out of the public school I attended and enrolled in a school maintained by the Jewish Community. My brother was already in a Jewish secondary school. My father had his own business, lost collections from non-Jews became difficult. Several months before we emigrated, we were forced to leave the apartment we had lived in and moved to another. ~~Here we~~ ^{suffered} no looting, or direct persecution like scrubbing streets.

2.2 How did non-Jewish friends, colleagues, schoolmates, neighbors, etc. behave toward you and your family?

We shunned each other.

- 2.3 Do you have any recollections of November 9th, 1938, the so-called "Reichs-Kristallnacht"? (If so, please give details.)

I don't know whether it was on that night, but I do recall spending a good part of one night in the basement of the apartment building with others.

- 2.4 Were you or any members of your family arrested? Sent to a camp? (If so, please give details.)

no

- 2.5 Can you recall the process of obtaining papers necessary for emigration? (Did you try to obtain visas for other countries as well? Were you supported by any relief organization, by relatives or friends?)

My brother went from consulate to embassy, etc immediately after the Anschluss, registering us for immigration. When word of U.S. visa possibilities came through, an old friend of the family, going back to World War I, who was living in Detroit, Mich, agreed to sponsor us.

- 2.6 What happened to your (or your family's) apartments, houses, businesses and other property?

My father and grandfather sold what they could of their businesses, at ridiculously low prices. We were able to take with us clothes, bedding, some silverware + jewelry, and a minimum of cash. The rest remained in Vienna.

- 2.7 When did you leave Austria? (Please indicate exact date, if possible)

March 1940. My ~~father~~ brother left in September 1938

- 2.8 If you did not emigrate directly to the U.S, where did you go first?
(How long did you stay there? Can you give a brief description of your experiences?
Why did you leave?)

We travelled from Vienna through Germany in a train with covered windows to Holland. After 2 weeks or so, in Rotterdam, we sailed to New York, with a stop in Southampton.

3. THE UNITED STATES

3.1 When did you arrive in the U.S.? (Please indicate exact date, if possible)

April 1940

3.2 Did members of your family emigrate to countries other than the U.S.? (If so, where? Where do they live today? Are you still in contact with them?)

My brother emigrated to England in September 1938, spent the war years there, then went to Cyprus in 1947 and entered Palestine illegally on the second try. He has lived in Israel throughout, except when stationed elsewhere.

3.3 Did you serve in the U.S. Armed Forces or in any other allied army? (If so, when did you join? What division? What was your area of operation? When were you discharged?)

no

3.4 Please list places and dates of residence in the U.S.

(City, State; in bigger cities, neighborhood)

my parents and maternal grandparents lived in the Bronx, in New York for the rest of their lives, except that my mother lived in South Florida for 19 years until she died. I lived in the East Bronx, then Riverdale; moved in Indianapolis, Ind in 1967. To the Chicago suburbs (Wilmette and Palatine) in 1974; and to Pompano Beach, Fla in 1983.

3.5 Please describe your occupational situation from your arrival in the U.S. to the present.

I was a student - elementary, junior high and high school and college - and then briefly in accounting with an international company. Subsequently, I spent 30 years with insurance companies and actuarial consulting firms - I was a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries and a member of other actuarial organizations - then in publishing as author, editor and publisher of ~~weekly~~ a bi-weekly then monthly ~~magazine~~ community magazine, and now a City Commissioner in Pompano Beach.
